ECPR Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 2nd. 234 x 156 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The first comprehensive account of the booming phenomenon of deliberative mini-publics, this book offers a systematic review of their variety, discusses their weaknesses, and recommends ways to make them a viable component of democracy. The book takes stock of the diverse practices of deliberative mini-publics and, more concretely, looks at preconditions, processes, and outcomes. It provides a critical assessment of the experience with mini-publics; in particular their lack of policy impact. Bringing together leading scholars in the field, notably James S Fishkin and Mark E Warren, Deliberative Mini-Publics will speak to anyone with an interest in democracy and democratic innovations. Deliberative Mini-Publics offers a multifaceted exploration - at once normative, empirical and practical - of a growing family of institutional innovations that aim to deepen democracy by fostering citizen participation and deliberation that is fair, wise, and inclusive. This volume comes at an urgent moment when many peoples are losing faith in the central institutions that constitute representative democracy - from elections to political parties to the state itself It offers a science and philosophy to begin to rebuild that faith by reinventing the institutions of democratic engagement. Archon Fung Ford Foundation Professor of Democracy and Citizenship, Harvard Kennedy School Mini-publics are an important and exciting innovation in our democratic repertoire. Bachtiger, Gronlund and Setala have brought together some of the very best scholars working on this subject and produced an outstanding volume that showcases the most up-to-date thinking and the latest research both empirical and theoretical on mini-publics. A must-read book for anyone interested in deliberative democracy and citizen participation. Simone Chambers Professor of Political Science, University of Toronto Those committed to a deliberative conception...
