Excerpt from The Honest Farmer From Arkansaw on a Lark Seein the West On every hand was reflected from the truth ful face of nature the omnipresence of a Supreme Being. And as I gazed upon the wonderful beauties that flashed continuously like moving pictures before my vision, I possessed a feeling of silent admiration which held me spellbound, and while I felt the poetry and music of my surroundings, permeating every fibre of my being, language always failed me when attempting a description of that grand vista of lovely, rugged witnesses of God s handi craft.
