In the small, uneventful town of Clever, Missouri, high schooler Quinn McAvery is finding it hard to move forward in life after the recent death of her mother. With the tension between her and her father making home life almost unbearable, Quinn turns to the comfort of her childhood friends, until the arrival of the strange and secretive Louis York threatens the small bit of sanity she has left. With his silver eyes and sneaky smile, Louis effortlessly finds a place amongst Quinn's tight knit social group, causing her to suspect that Louis is more than just the suave teenager he pretends to be. When she discovers his incredible secret through the means of two bronze skeleton keys, everything that Quinn believed about life and death will change forever. The Veil of Angels is a simple and inspiring story about discovering one's inner strength and learning to love the beautiful tragedy that is life itself.
