

Upon Studying My Exhalation (Paperback)

By Bryson W Hatfield

Dorrance Publishing Co., United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Upon Studying My Exhalation observes the progression of time based on the author's own experiences. Within these pages, he explores a range of human circumstances, beginning with the journey to a new city and continuing on to discuss the themes of love, logic, conversation, and change. In life, there is constant transition from one state of being to the next, and many times change is the only thing one can count on. This collection of essays offers snapshots into everyday life that many readers will find relatable; it is the author's hope that his words will help others realize that they are not alone and that there are similarities between us all. About the Author Bryson W. Hatfield is currently living in the high and dry desert town of Santa Fe, New Mexico. Originally aspiring to become a high school mathematics teacher in Twin Falls, Idaho, he has bounced around in his academic career and is now a performing arts major. He hopes to live an exciting and word-filled life for as long as he possibly can, no...
