Quick reflexes recommended. Feisty and adventurous, art teacher Sam Koo is used to getting what she wants, including talking her way out of traffic tickets. When it comes to money matters though, she's a lost cause. Her studio is in trouble, and there's no way of charming herself out of this mess. Police officer Lucas Choi is the last person she expects to rescue her. Handsome and rule-abiding, he was the best-and worst-part of her high school experience. When they meet a decade later, he's still on her case and quick to point out her flaws. Their differences drive each other crazy, but also draw them closer. The attraction is tangible, yet so are Sam's fears. Will she choose to protect her heart or trust the only man who ever rejected her? Each book in the Taking Chances Series can be read as a standalone.
