Gracie s Diary: A Memoir

By Bobbi Phillip

Bobbi Phillip, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 142 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The emotional and poignant story of a middle aged couple that married after meeting online and the lovable, adorable designer puppy that became their together child , showing them that her role of filling their empty nest, though filled with trials, would be worth it in the end. Gary and Bobbi were building a life together, rebounding from past failed marriages. They had learned a lot. With excess baggage set aside they vowed that this marriage would last forever. Just days after moving into their new home, Bobbi s early Christmas present arrived in the form of a soft, buff Cockapoo puppy, Gracie. And so their new life together began. Gracie was a rebel from day one. After christening the new dog carrier en route home and then the new plush white carpeting throughout their new home, the Phillips wondered if getting a dog so soon after moving into their new home was a good idea. Gracie s antics did not stop there. She stole pens, ate candy bar wrappers, chewed up wiring, intimidated guests, and proclaimed...
