Xulon Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Marcelo Selo Lozano has a passion to serve and encourage today s generation of youth pastors, ministers, leaders, workers, and students. Growing, developing, and motivating them to rise up as the people that God has called them to be: Leaders of their families, churches, and communities, so that they can be the voice needed to usher in the move of God in our nation. With a unique mix of skills, which range from motivational speaking, character development, practical life coaching, counseling, and marketing, geared toward equipping and supporting the local church with the resources needed to grow and develop their student ministry. Selo resides in Waco, Texas with his wife, Mia Lozano and their four children and five grandchildren. He currently serves his local church as youth pastor, for the past 14 years, and associate pastor. He also serves his community by coaching youth pastors, consulting churches in staff development and training and marketing.
