

TREE GOD Behind the Iron Curtain

By Alan Hamer

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 272 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 4.8in. x 0.9in. TREE GOD - Behind the Iron Curtain is a novel based on a true story. In 1969 during the Cold War years, Alan, a twenty one year old lad from Bolton set off to the Soviet Union to work as a Materials Engineer. During three astounding rollercoaster years in Mogilev, Belarus, he met people who would change his life forever; none more so than Larissa. Tree God is a journey of intrigue and self-discovery, which, told with the familiar northern dry wit gives the reader a sneak glimpse into the mysterious grey world behind the iron curtain. Join Alan on his adventure as a naive lad who stumbles into more than he bargained for in communist USSR. Apart from vivid memories that would last a lifetime just what was he bringing back with him. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
