There is not one law for the gods, and another for mortals; one life for the atom, and another for the globe. Each is a part of the web. Reflecting the Self-Existent Lord like a mirror, each becomes in turn a world. (Book of Dzyan.) It is this which places the deductive Philosophy so infinitely beyond the methods of inductive science, with its endless speculations and contradictory theories. It is this which places it so infinitely beyond those little systems of so-called religion, which can mete out a plan of salvation , by which perchance a few favoured mortals may enter into an eternity of bliss. Spirit or Father is often symbolised by fire or light; and matter or Mother is symbolised by water or the deep . This, as we have already seen, is also a term for abstract space. Darkness radiates Light, and Light drops one solitary ray into the Mother-Deep (Space). Now this is exactly the same symbolism as found in the first chapter of Genesis: Darkness was upon the face of the deep; and the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. And God said, Let there be Light. Here the deep and the waters are synonymous, and are the female principle, the Mother-Deep ; while the Spirit is the Father . It is not difficult to trace this also in the New Testament, where the birth of Jesus...
