And if we found, on inquiry, that the Judge had the distinct words of another statute in his favour, while Dr. Pinnock had nothing but a fancied analogy of language, we should side with the Jud, and not with the Doctor. ow, the point is this. The Rubric the authority of Parliament in the secon year-of Kin Edward the Sixth. The first and most natu question is, What was done by Parliament in that year We find that the 2 and 3-Edward 6. c. l. is entitled, An Act of Uniformity of Service and Administration of the Sacraments throughout the Realm, and that-by it the Book of Common Prayer, commonly called King Edward the Sixths First PrayerBook, received parliamentary sanction. By this Prayer-Book a certain usage was for the first time established throughout the Church of England. Before that time there had been--we learn from the Prayer-Book itself--various...
