This is a deliverance book with true life experience/encounter/story and testimonies of those God has used the author to delivered from captivity and bondage of evil powers; it talks about satanic activities and how their agents initiate children and adults. The book also talked about the real life encounter of the author with evil powers and how God s power subdued that of Satan; and delivered men and women who was possessed with evil powers, their experiences and ordeal was also narrated. It further revealed how God disgraced evil personalities going on an evil mission using the author, signifying God s supremacy over that of Satan. It further explains that miracles still occurs to those willing to open themselves to Jesus Christ. The sick can still be healed, and the possessed delivered, and many could still be set free from financial bondage; all these can only come through Jesus Christ. The author narrated the need for freedom from principalities and powers, prayer and fasting, faith, healing, conducting deliverance, service to God, miracles, yielding to God s call,...
