First when she is born as a daughter, secondly when she becomes a life partner of a person and the most precious is that when she gives birth of a new life. We call our mother in different ways in different languages. For example Japanese people call their mother okaasan, American people call mother or mom, German call it mutter and Chinese people call mama.etc. The word mother may seem too small to say but its true meaning is so deeper that a person can ever imagine. Only a mother can feel the true meaning of giving birth to a child. Only she can describe how much the pain is to let a life come out and see the light of the earth by giving birth to a child. Some of us think that giving birth to a child is so easy.
