The Lord hath wrought great glory by them. Ecclesiasticus XLIV, 1-2. It is well to remember the great and the good in Church and in State. The recurring festivals of the Christian Year, commemorating notable events in the life of the Founder of Christianity or in the lives of the Apostles, Saints, Martyrs of the Early Church, are examples of this custom - examples salutary and beneficent. The same principle applies to our great national anniversary which is called Independence Day or the Fourth of July, to Lincoln's birthday, and to the day we are now celebrating - the Twenty-second of February. I never think of the subject of Patriotism without first of all thinking of that great man, born this day, who, and who alone, is entitled to be called The Father of His Country. God has raised up many great men for us,...
