Wolves don't share their mates, or do they? Ethan and Latan can't keep their hands off the Pack's new schoolteacher. Unfortunately, Kitania is proving to be quite the mystery. She has no scent identifying her inner beast, no background they can verify, and she seems entirely too interested in their family's arch enemy. Kitania's in love for the very first time. Even knowing they'll send her packing if they find out what she truly is, she's still dreaming of family, and happily ever after. She can't afford to be distracted if she wants to complete her mission for the National Council. When their enemy captures a family member, Kitania must decide where her loyalties lie. She can reveal her true nature and help with the rescue, but will it cost her the love of the brothers?  A Siren Erotic Romance.
