To The Board of Education, Ladies and Gentlemen: Herewith I respectfully submit for your consideration annual reports for the current year from the Director of Kindergartens, the Director of Music, the two Directors of Sewing, the Director of Cooking, and the Acting-Supervisor of Modern Foreign Languages in Elementary Schools Miss Fanniebelle Curtis, Director of Kindergartens, makes several new recommendations for the improvement of the kindergartens, and renews recommendations made in previous years. Permit me to call your attention especially to two experiments, described in Miss Curtis report, which have been conducted in connection with kindergarten work during the past year. I refer to a class conducted in Public School No. 15, Manhattan, for backward and defective children, and a class conducted in Public School No. 4, Manhattan where the children had most effective nature study, by observing a variety of live animals brought to the school through the cooperation of the Department..
