

Escape from Baghdad: One Woman's True Story (Paperback)

By Farah Molai

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In this riveting, inspiring memoir, a woman of Baha'i faith and her children are trapped in Islamic Baghdad, where the Baha'is are despised as much as Christians and Jews. She endures: lies and deception. religious persecution. the cruelty of war. savage beatings. the murder of her husband and one of her sons. and unparalleled sacrifice for her children. She even had the perseverance and audacity to plead for help from the brutal dictator, Saddam Hussein. Farah Molai emerges triumphant, a testament to her faith, her will to survive, and a mother's love and determination to save her children. This true story of heroism will haunt you long after you've finished the book. Read it now!
