Excerpt: .such a committee, but that before any decided move on the part of the Government could be made, the popular voice must be heard expressing a desire for the proposed change. Since that date the New Decimal Association has been actively engaged in distributing information on the subject and in securing extended support. The present Chancellor of the Exchequer and President of the Board of Trade have been in turn asked to hear the views of the leaders of this movement, and have promised to receive a deputation on the 25th January next. When it is mentioned that it is expected that the Duke of Westminster and other Peers, the Agents-General for Victoria, the Cape of Good Hope, and Queensland, several Members of Parliament, and delegates from the principal Chambers of Commerce, and from the Trade Councils of Manchester, Sheffield, Glasgow, etc., have promised to...
