Maximize people potential by tapping into three basic human needs. Improve employee engagement! It is a proven fact that how you treat your people directly impacts how your people treat your customers. In today's relationship-oriented world, these can be any organization or communities building blocks to success. Love, respect as individuals, and purpose: Love is the greatest of human needs. To be respected as individuals! To know they are making a difference! In the Knowledge Worker Age in which we are in now, organizational success depends on your ability to inspire people to the highest level of engagement and maximize people's potential. An empowered, collaborative culture is a must for success, not an exception. If you create a culture in which these three factors are the end result of programming and accountabilities, you are more likely to tap into individual and team potential. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
