The World I Live In and Optimism A Collection of Essays Dover Books on Literature Drama

By Helen Keller

Dover Publications. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 128 pages. Dimensions: 8.2in. x 5.3in. x 0.4in. These poetic, inspiring essays offer insights into the world of a gifted woman who was deaf and blind. Helen Keller relates her impressions of life's beauty and promise, perceived through the sensations of touch, smell, and vibration, together with the workings of a powerful imagination. The World I Live In comprises fifteen essays and a poem, A Chant of Darkness, all of which originally appeared in The Century Magazine. These brief articles include The Seeing Hand, The Hands of Others, The Power of Touch, The Finer Vibrations, Smell, the Fallen Angel Inward Visions, and other essays. Optimism, written while Keller was a college student, offers eloquent observations on acquiring and maintaining a sense of happiness. These essays reflect the author's remarkable achievements, as expressed in her honorary degree from Harvard, the first ever granted to a woman: From a still, dark world she has brought us light and sound; our lives are richer for her faith and her example. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.

Reviews

An incredibly great book with perfect and lucid answers. Better than never, though I am quite late in starting to read this one. You will not sense monotony at whenever you want of your time (that's what catalogues are for relating to if you question me).
