No, I had too good a start. {Down C.} After a delightful evening at the Policeman s Ball - the more enjoyable because strictly on the quiet - I was crowding my way to the coat-room, when whom should I see but my respected employer, Mr. Film, who probably thought me, as I certainly had imagined him, at home and in bed! I had just time to dive between the legs of the man behind me, ana, unnoticed by him, to gain the street, coatless, hatless, but not altogether bootless, thanks to the obliging gentleman who kicked me downstairs for running against him. Brr! wasn t it cold, though; for this piece of pasteboard producing coat-check), though the equivalent of a coat, a hat, and an umbrella, was a precious poor protection against the weather. But I haven t a minute to lose. Old Film can t be far behind me, and if..
