Neuware - Seminar paper from the year 2006 in the subject Cultural Studies - European Studies, grade: 1.3, University of Potsdam, course: The Commonwealth of Nations, 11 entries in the bibliography, language: English, abstract: In this essay, I will raise the question if the story of immigration of Asian Indians to Great Britain can be considered a genuine success story. At first glance, no one would seriously doubt that. Asian Indians are the largest ethnic group in Britain and known as an upwardly mobile people. They are successful entrepreneurs, restaurant owners and academics; as well as the inventors of the popular British national dish chicken tikka masala, which has recently surpassed fish and chips in terms of popularity. They are also important influencers of Britain's pop culture, especially through literature and successful films such as Bend it like Beckham, East is East or the TV show The Kumars at No.42 (ibid). The Anglo-Indian influence on British popular culture (ibid). The biggest influence that British Indians have on British popular culture can be seen by...
