Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Pastor Dave Samson, his wife Faith and three daughters lived a Christian life within the church, being well-respected and loved in their small community. That is before the youngest daughter, caught up with a secret, attempts to cover it up with devastating results, destroying the entire family with its consequences. Ripped from their idyllic existence, they must all cope in their own way to regain their faith in people and their beliefs while learning to love, forgive, and accept one another once again. This is a powerful and heart-wrenching drama of how one member of the family can affect each other by their actions with shattering results. A crucial read for all young women who must make difficult decisions about their future and the significance of its impact on everyone involved.
