Use the verbs sit and set in conversation about the pictures on pages 16 and 35; the verbs lie and lay about the picture on page 74; the verbs rise and raise about the pictures on page 15; the verbs teach and learn about the picture on page 67. THE BOY WHO NEVER TOLD A LIE. Once there was a little boy With curly hair and pleasant eye--A boy who always told the truth, And never, never told a lie. And when he trotted off to school, The children all about would cry, There goes the curly-headed boy--The boy that never tells a lie. And everybody loved him so, Because he always told the truth, That every day, as he grew up, T was said, There goes the honest youth. And when the people that stood near Would turn to ask the reason why, The answer would be always this: Because he never tells a lie. THE BOY WHO NEVER TOLD A LIE. Once there was a bright-eyed, curly-headed boy who always told the truth. When he went to school the children would exclaim, There goes the curlyheaded boy who never tells a lie. Because he always told, the truth, he was loved by all who knew him. When he became older the people spoke of him...
