Reviews

It is just one of my personal favorite publications. It is among the most awesome publications I have read. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Forgotten Books, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Sustainable Grand Canyon Workshop: December 1995 The Sustainable Grand Canyon Workshop, a collaborative weeklong session in late September 1994, brought together regional and national environmental leaders; representatives of governmental, utility, and community interests; private developers; and Native Americans to discuss how to make Grand Canyon National Park more environmentally and economically sustainable. Using the Draft General Management Plan as a foundation, the workshop participants worked with professionals from the National Park Service, us. Department of the Interior; the Western Area Power Administration, and the Federal Emery Management Program, us. Department of Emery; and the us. Army Corps of Engineers to find sustainable solutions to issues presented in the plan. The goal of the workshop was to encourage access to Grand Canyon National Park while building a sustainable vision for future generations as part of the park s 75th anniversary celebration. The workshop participants worked to develop a methodology that would foster appropriate visitation and Operational practices while sustaining the integrity of natural and cultural resources for future use. The participants divided into four subgroups to seek sustainable visions and solutions in the following topic areas: (a) resource efficiency, (b) visitor experience, (0) information management, and (d) implementation and partnering plans. The topics discussed in these workgroups included education and interpretation, information dissemination, economic and community development, cultural change and human interaction with the land (resources), energy efficiency, land use, transportation, water use, and wastewater, building materials and use, and indoor air quality. The group s recommendations, in conjunction with the General Management Plan, seek to build a globally recognized model that can be translated to parks and communities worldwide.
