College, at Commencement, on the First of December, MDCCCLI* It is not common that so small a publication as this, is preceded by a preface; but some circumstances connected with the following Address are believed of sufficient weight to ask the reader s indulgence for a few remarks. Immediately after the delivery of the Address a distinguished member of our College government spoke to the author, of the copy of the Address. The answer was that there was none, and that the speech had been delivered from a mental arrangement and disposition of the subject. When, therefore, that gentleman, at a subsequent period, proposed an obliging vote of thanks to the orator, in the Board of Trustees, he did not insert the request for a copy, because he thought the writing out of a copy would give too much trouble to the speaker, whose time happens to be greatly occupied at this period. His Excellency, the Governor, ex officio President of the Board of Trustees, mentioned this fact to the deliverer of the Address, who declared his readiness to write down all he remembered of the remarks he had made to the graduating class; and Governor Means at once politely requested him to do so, that it might be printed. The order could no longer issue from the Board, because it had adjourned. This has been done. The author, when addressing his young friends, left out several subjects on which he had intended to speak, partly forgetting them in the flow of the moment, partly because he was afraid of occupying...
