There is no worse experience than when you feel you are alone in your suffering. Sometimes you just need to know there are other people out there who are undergoing the same kinds of challenges you are going through.-Rebecca S. Dunaway Rebecca S. Dunaway knows what it's like to feel the twinge of life's challenges. She understands how one can feel uncertain about God's plan. In her grace-filled book Marred on the Potter's Wheel, she provides readers with inspiration and guidance for even their greatest hardships. There is wisdom to be found in faith. However, we often lose sight of this when we are faced with painful obstacles. Continuing to grow in our faith can feel impossible when we're struggling to make emotional ends meet. Dunaway encourages you to find peace and healing within God's plan-to trust that there is a purpose for every moment. Much like you can discover the brightest of gems in the murkiest of caves, Dunaway will help you unearth treasures of hope from your moments of pain. Marred on the Potter's Wheel provides divine inspiration and encouragement to readers when they find themselves traveling through life's darkest moments.
