Songs of Solomon 8:6-7 Wear me as a signet ring on your heart, as a ring on your hand. Love is as overpowering as death. Devotion is as unyielding as the grave. Love's flames are flames of fire, flames that come from the Lord. Raging water cannot extinguish love and rivers will never wash it away. If a man exchanged all his family's wealth for love, people would utterly despise him. The scripture above describes the intensity of the love that should exist between couples especially when the relationship has just begun or early in marriage. In this passionate loving state, no storm or life challenges can extinguish the love such couple share. However, there are certain attitudes and behaviours that can gradually extinguish love if care is not taken. Proverbs 26:22 When there is no wood, the fire is extinguished. The wood represents several things we do or fail to do in marriage that can erode love e.g. when mutual respect is somewhat lacking in a relationship, when couples fail to spend quality time together, when conflicts and anger are becoming regular and many more. In this book you will find out how to: understand the needs of your spouse, re-ignite the passion you once shared, bring back intimacy and romance into your relationship, stay spiritually connected to your spouse, resolve pressing issues, become your spouse's best friend and stay strong in your relationship. No one can go back and change how it started but a new future for any marriage can begin the moment one person begins to invest in it - Fawn Weaver.
