Real Estate Agents Don't Sell Homes: What No Real Estate Agent Will Ever Tell You, But All Home Owners Must Know Before Selling (Paperback)

By David Kaity

MoshPit Publishing, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Finally, a book that busts the myths surrounding the real estate sales industry. It exposes the reasons why the industry is broken, and why people still continue to waste many billions of dollars each year on unnecessary commissions and marketing fees. This book debunks several major myths about the real estate sales industry that have been deep-rooted in society for many decades. The most obvious of these is that real estate agents sell homes. This is simply not true. There is a process or recipe that results in the successful sale of any home and this process doesn't care who follows it. It also doesn't care how much someone pays to have this process work for them. It is far better to trust this process than to trust any real estate agent. The book aims to save people from making one of the most expensive mistakes in their lives, which is to sell with a real estate agent. It shows people how they can walk away from the sale of their home with tens of thousands of dollars more than they...
