Emerge Publishing Group, LLC, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Sustainable in Stiletto is the beginning of a conscious conversation about fashion, beauty, art, food and life. Within its pages are real solutions from real people that are changing the face of the industry. Will you be one of them? In today's world where massive corporations drive fashion, beauty products and food, the primary goal is always to maximize profits. In doing so, their processes and manufacturing choices have caused great harm to our waterways, skies and even our bodies. Now, that is all changing. Virtually everyone agrees that we must find ways to protect our planet. Sustainability is our collective responsibility. Even global brands are paying attention to the voices of sustainability and are finding responsible alternatives. Collectively, consumers are being heard over the white noise and chatter of the advertising, propaganda and agenda-driven companies that will produce anything for a profit. Author and sustainability thought leader, Tracey Martin invites you to step into sustainability and be a part of a conscious, ethical and mindful way of living. Consumers are becoming more sophisticated in their buying habits. There is an awakening to what our impact is having on this planet. Bonus Chapter: Tracey also highlights groups that are leading the charge and need your support. Education is the key, so she has also included other recommended books, documentaries and podcasts for you to become well-informed and make a big impact! There is a better way to live today. A more fulfilling, beautiful and mindful way. Each one of us can choose to show up differently in this world. Humanity will be the biggest benefactor when this happens.
