With hair so blonde it s unearthly, and eyes so blue you might sink into the sea if you look in them for too long. Maybe it s true. For I, the fearsome Mason Bentley-a buccaneer revered by the most dreaded pirates, and a man who never thought he d call one woman his own-fell into the depths of her spell. Hannah Remington, the lost young girl who had no one who loved her and no one to protect her, somehow became my everything: her tears, her artwork, and her damned cat. But ye be warned, by unveiling the mystery behind her ocean blue eyes, you ll not find the makings of a typical pirate tale. It isn t so much about sword fights, great gun blasts, or the adventurous life at sea, but rather, a story about the harsh reality that ignites the fire of pirate spirit. And sometimes, such secrets are better left uncharted. -Mason Bentley-
