Excerpt: . rents, interest, dividends and all other sources, should not exceed $234,123,000, being $67,408,000 less than the net traffic earnings reported by Poor, and taking the net earnings ($405,220,000) as shown by the Inter-State Commission, the excess is $171,097,000 wrongfully extorted from the agricultural and other industries in one year. This difference in the amount of net earnings arises from the fact that, in Poor's Manual, only traffic earnings are tabulated, no account being taken of the immense sums railway companies derive from rents of lauds, buildings, track and terminals, as well as in the form of dividends on stocks and bonds owned, and the profits from the, sale of such securities, all amounting to vast sums and yearly increasing as the railways become consolidated and absorb more and more of existing property; hence Mr. Poor's figures are incomplete and misleading, inasmuch...
