The story in this picture book is told in loose rhyme. A child travels to a land far away and encounters animal friends as he journeys from high mountain meadows, through a river canyon, down to the sea shore. There he meets the children Keri and Kalina, and the youth Leofric, to ride horses along the beach, go fishing, and play. Suddenly he wakes up and realizes it was all in his imagination. He was dreaming. The illustrations show ponies and horses, a dog, mountains, meadows, the desert, a river canyon, the sea shore, and a gravelly river edged with forests. The story is based on places and characters from the epic fantasy Windflower Saga trilogy, but simplified into a picture book for small children. Bright Star the pony and Tiyo the dog are from Ansgar (part I of the trilogy); Keri, Kalina, and Leofric are from Of Wisdom and Valor (part II of the trilogy) though featured in their own books for younger readers: Keri and Kalina, A Windflower Saga Chapter Book and Leofric of Longridge, A Windflower Saga Novella which is suitable for young adult readers.
