Ask what makes you come alive, and go do it. Because what the world needs are people who have come alive Howard Thurman This book reads like an enjoyable conversation with a friend at a cafe or at home over a cup of tea. It gently shares actions that have worked for a number of people from all walks of life, to overcome small and not so small challenges and choices in life. An easy to read book that my wife described as Enjoyable. what others have said. In this great book Richard captures the importance of being the driver in ones life as opposed to being the passenger and illuminates a powerful message for us all, Be of good hope and trust, make decisions, this will bring about changes. - Gary Shields Richard has written this heart and soul warming book because he believes in you. It is practical, easy to read and yet deep. You can dip into Richard s guidance, gentle encouragement and wisdom - anywhere, anytime and be totally enriched by it. Make this essential reading for yourself and those you care about. - Jasbindar Singh, leadership coach, speaker and author of Get your Groove Back. Richard Kerr-Bell is a Teacher, Guidance Counsellor at a secondary school, and Management Coach.
