It was a difficult book to write, but I wrote it hoping to encourage you on your journey. It is specially written to invite you to seek peace in the midst of all your anguish. We all know that cancer is a devastating diagnosis for everyone involved! However, if you look hard enough, you will begin to see little miracles that will make you smile. I believe these marvelous wonders come from God Himself. I pray that the words in this book will jump off the pages and right into your heart. I truly understand how you feel. You are the reason I share my story about mom. She was my number one best friend and always will be. I pray you will become blessed on your journey! Remember you are not alone! NEVER GIVE UP HOPE!.
