Excerpt: . put its finger upon every corporation doing business in the State, for the location of its corporations seems to be the chief information desired. Not one word is said about capital stock or indebtedness. The report required may in a way be said to be for purposes of taxation, for the State has been so very aggressive in its taxation of corporations recently that many have left the State and taken out charters in other States. MAINE. According to the recent law of Maine, corporations must pay an annual franchise tax in proportion to their authorized capital stock, and are required to file with the Secretary of State on or before the first of June, annually, a return, signed by the president or treasurer, verified under oath, containing: (1) The names of the directors, president, treasurer, and clerk, with the residence of each. (2)...
