Excerpt: . . . 11 understand there is some disagreement on that point, but that is how we understand it from our members. Many of our members wanted to sell their Enron stock during the lockout. Instead, all they could do was simply watch helplessly as the stock price tumbled dramatically and their life savings dis-integrated before their eyes. To summarize the wild ride we were on with stock prices from the beginning of the year through the end of the lockout period: January 25 was 81. 38; September 28, 27. 23; October 19, 26. 05; October 30, 11. 16; November 13, 9. 98. If one looks at the big picture of the regions utilities, it is a pret-ty grim reality. The stability of surrounding companies has a direct impact on our relationship with our utility employers. Avista Power in Washington State, once known as the pillar of the Northwest utilities for...
