

Putting the Local in Global Education: Models for Transformative Learning Through Domestic off-Campus Programs

By Adam Weinberg, Neal W. Sobania

Stylus Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Putting the Local in Global Education: Models for Transformative Learning Through Domestic off-Campus Programs, Adam Weinberg, Neal W. Sobania, The position taken in this volume is that domestic off-campus study can be just as powerful a transformative learning experience as study overseas, and that domestic programs can equally expand students' horizons, their knowledge of global issues and processes, their familiarity and experience with cultural diversity, their intercultural skills, and sense of citizenship. This book presents both the rationale for and examples of "study away", an inclusive concept that embraces study abroad while advocating for a wide variety of domestic study programs, including community-based education programs that employ academic service-learning and internships. With the growing diversification--regionally, demographically, culturally, and socio-economically--of developed economies such as the US, the local is potentially a "doorstep to the planet" and presents opportunities for global learning. Moreover, study away programs can address many of the problematic issues associated with study abroad, such as access, finance, participation, health and safety, and faculty support. Between lower costs, the potential to increase the participation of student cohorts typically under-represented in study abroad, the lowering of language barriers, and the engagement of..
