Not illustrated. 1912 Excerpt: .think that in this community that work should be vigorously fostered. Night school was held three nights a week for twelve weeks. The total enrollment was 34. Of this number, 26 attended the entire twelve weeks. We made the mistake of not opening the evening school until December. I am convinced that by opening in October or early in November next year we will have a very large attendance. The subjects taught in the night school were Shorthand, Typewriting, Commercial Correspondence, Penmanship, Arithmetic, Reading. The class. in Reading was composed of foreigners, some of whom could not speak a word of English at the beginning. Splendid progress was made by these people. An effort will be made next year to extend night school work to Domestic Science and possibly to Manual Training. Our new schools have been strongly supported by all classes of citizens. Since the...
