Excerpt from A Charge, Delivered to the Clergy and Churchwardens of the Diocese of Peterborough, at His Primary Visitation, October, 1872 But more important, infinitely, than even the frequent week-day Services, or the observance of the greater Festivals, is the frequent celebration of the Holy Communion. If daily prayer be the rule, frequent Communion is assuredly the spirit and intent of our Church's Communion office. When our Church requires every Parishioner to Communicate at least three times in the year, she certainly never intended that no one of them should have the power of Communicating more frequently than this. This is the minimum of observance that she enjoins; it surely is not the maximum of privilege that she provides for her children. It surely never was her mind that their souls should be strengthened and refreshed by the Body and Blood of Christ but three times in the year, as I grieve to say that in some, though happily but few, of the Churches in the Diocese is all that is permitted to the Parishioners by their Pastor. How the Clergyman can expect for himself that he shall have strength to do his Master's work, or bear his Master's Cross, if he thus starve himself of the heavenly food which his Master has provided for his soul's sustenance I cannot imagine. But I must ask where he has obtained the right thus to starve his flock NO Parish Priest can be justified or excused in thus laying his Parish for the greater part of the year under an interdict. Is it to be wondered at that from such Parishes there should come complaints of hindrances to the success...
