Excerpt from Conferencia Sobre Asuntos Centroamericanos: Manual Especial Para El Uso De Los Delegados, Conference on Central American Affairs, Special Handbook for the Use of the Delegates Each one of the Governments or individuals directly concerned in the questions to be considered by the Court has the right to be represented before it by a trust worthy person or persons, who shall present evidence, formulate arguments, and shall, within the terms fixed by this Convention and by the rules of the Court of Justice do everything that in their judgment shall be beneficial to the defense of the rights they repre sent. From the moment in which any suit is instituted against any one or more governments up to that in which a final decision has been pronounced, the court may at the solicitation of any one of the par ties fix the situation in which the contending parties must remain, to the end that the difficulty shall not be aggravated and that things shall be conserved in statu quo pending a final decision.
