Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A FEMA crisis manager by day and serial killer by night becomes romantically involved with the FBI unit chief hunting him down. Will she learn his dark secret? If you re a fan of Dexter and American Psycho, this is the book for you! Killing Matt Cooper is a harrowing and erotic glimpse through the eyes of a serial killer: a first-person account of the love that drives a monster. Narrator Samuel H. Knight chronicles a swirling maelstrom of misogyny, sex, violence, and fantasy -- all the things that he believes will lead him back to his Love. Fearlessly written, the author holds absolutely nothing back. -- Danielle Evans (reviewed on Goodreads and on Smashwords) Devilish and fun in a creepy sort of way . Which I am, in some ways, ashamed to have found as captivating as I did. -- Leo Walsh (reviewed on Goodreads and on Smashwords) Like Raskolnikov . a mixture of the noble and the manipulative is part of the killer s constitution, with the possibility of redemption in the wings. -- Cole Davis (reviewed on Goodreads and on Smashwords) Perhaps I should be ashamed to admit that, despite my complete and utter repulsion to the subject matter, this was a page turner for me. --Marcy O Dell (reviewed on Goodreads).
