Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A CHRISTMAS HOUSE is the perfect Christmas play for anyone who has ever: built a house, worried about getting old, been single, been married, experienced sibling rivalry, delivered a baby, or spent the holidays with their relatives! Based on a true story, A Christmas House is a funny often poignant love story of one man s family and the house he built off the coast of Georgia. It will strike a chord with anyone who has ever undertaken the job of bringing their family together for Christmas and will touch everyone who has waited until the prime of their life to embrace their dreams. AWARDS NOTICES Dreams fulfilled! Waterloo Playhouse Mainstage Production, Waterloo, IA. Funny and poignant! Island Players, St. Simons Island, GA. Perfect Christmas Story St. Philips Cathedral, Atlanta, GA. Finalist South Carolina s Playwrights Conference, Beaufort, SC. Director s Lab, New York, NY ABOUT THE PLAY Abigail Addison was born on Christmas Day and although it had never bothered her before, this year she was turning sixty and even though she didn t look old, every now and then she felt old. So, when Fred, her husband of thirty-five years, invites the family down to spend Christmas together in the house he s been building on an island off the coast of Georgia, she decides to surprise him by selling their old home in Atlanta and embrace a life together at the beach. It s Abigail, however, who is surprised when she gets to the beach and discovers the house is somewhat lacking . lacking paint, lacking plaster, lacking walls. But, as each member of the family arrives, they see a different house. As they struggle to bring the walls...
