

Pieces: A Jack Walsh Novel (Paperback)

By Bob Pierce

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Neuroatypical - autistic - Dylan Sebring watches an appraiser on a national antiques television show tell the story of a nineteenth-century French bronze figurine that a man had brought from his home in Vermont. The statue is one of a trio called The Three Graces and across their bronze bases are engraved the cryptic clues to the hiding place of Leonardo DaVinci's storied Mona Lisa portrait, stolen from the Louvre in Paris in 1911. Dylan is captivated by the story and becomes fixated on the need to solve the hundred year old puzzle. Undaunted by the limitations of his autism and conversely relying on his savant skills, he steals the statue but is soon caught by novelist Jack Walsh who (against his better judgement) is recruited to help the son of the statue's owner to locate when the police reach a dead end in their investigation. Along with the help of his caustic hacker research assistant, he tracks down Dylan and the statue at his parents home in Rhode Island. But after meeting him, Jack realizes that the...
