[.] Won t you come in? she asked. I don t seem to remember your face, but we would be glad to have you join us. Eliph Hewlitt shook his head. No m, he said sadly. I d better not come in. Not that I don t want to, but I wouldn t be welcome. There ain t anything I like so much as church picnics, and when I was a boy I used to cry for them, but I wouldn t dare join you. I m a -he looked around cautiously, and said in a whisper- I m a book agent. The lady laughed. Of course, she said, that DOES make a difference; but you needn t be a book agent to-day. You can forget it for a while and join us. Eliph Hewlitt shook his head again. That s it, he said. That s just the reason. I CAN T forget it. I try to, but I can t. Just when I don t want to, I break out, and before I know it I ve sold...
