Excerpt from Foreign Crops and Markets, Vol. 41: July 29, 1940 Arrivals of native wheat in Shanghai increased considerably in July compared with June. During the past 2 weeks arrivals have averaged about bushels daily but little has been permitted to enter the internationally controlled areas in Shanghai. Japanese companies operating appropriated Chinese mills outside the foreign-controlled areas have purchased approximately bushels of new-crop domestic wheat. Chinese mills located in the international settlement have been able to secure only small quantities of wheat and have been required to pay from 5 to 6 cents a bushel above the-market price in order to obtain wheat. At the present time Chinese mills at Shanghai are reported to be operating at about 15 percent of capacity, and Japanese-operated mills are running at about 80 percent of capacity; Two cargoes of American wheat were reported early in July booked for Shanghai at about 81 cents per bushel, c.i.f.
