Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 212 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. Excerpt from Select Poems of Robert Browning. The publishers have desired that this book should be included in the series of English Classics edited by me, and that my name should be put first on the title-page; but I may say here in the preface that the better part in every sense of the work has been done by Miss Hersey, who knows tenfold more about Browning than I do. She originated the plan, selected the poems, prepared the Introduction, and wrote more than half of the notes. I have carefully collated the earlier and later texts of the poems (see especially the various readings of The Lost Leader, Childe Roland, and Pippa Passes, none of which appear in their later form in the American editions), and have revised and filled out the Notes. We have worked together in putting the results of our individual labors in shape for the press; and we venture to hope that the book is the better for having two editors instead of one. We are more confident of the excellence of choice and arrangement in the text than of the wisdom and completeness of the annotations. In the latter, however, we trust that at least we have not merited the scathing reminder of Brownings own lines in Mister Hugues of Saxe-Gotha: So we oershroud stars and roses, Cherub and trophy and garland; Nothings grow something which quietly closes Heavens earnest eye: not a glimpse of the far land Gets through our comments and glozes.
