The way to educate the people is to sow truth broadcast; if it be truth no harm will come of it and the seed that falls into good ground will rise higher to public thought, strengthen the sinews of trade, and deepen interest to public affairs. We have made great progress in the past and must not stand still; we want your co-operation, we need the co-operation of every employer of labor, and your membership is needed for the support you may be able to give this movement. If you believe in our declaration of principles which are as follows, and which have been adopted by hundreds of other associations throughout the United States and Canada then you should become an active member of the Association. principles. 1. No closed shop. 2. No restriction as to the use of tools, machinery, or materials, except such as are unsafe. 3. No limitation of output. 4. No restriction as to the number of apprentices and helpers, when of proper age. 5. No boycott. 6. No sympathetic strike. 7. No sacrifice of the independent workingmen to the labor union. 8. No compulsory use of the union label. The labor unions are daily waging war on these principles and if they succeed the ultimate end is the overthrow of the judiciary. As stated before we are not fighting unionism--a legitimate organization of labor is to be commended--and it is the...
