Enlargements Book 6 of the Further Beyond the Camera Saga Bryn Crawford is a choirboy. Good school, solid family, unadventurous, unambitious, highly intelligent but with high moral beliefs stemming from his intensively religious education. He is not, however, a religious fanatic. He progresses through university and becomes the lead singer in a local group for many years. He meets a rather special lady, a glamorous whore, who teaches him exactly how to please his women. She is keen to encourage a permanent relationship but Bryn is looking for his soul-mate. He goes to France to train as a sommelier and while there he meets a lady reporter with whom he has a minor affair and a continued acquaintance that proves useful in later circumstances. The day he falls in love is the day he meets the married Elise Harper. Not only does he have his own feelings and trauma to contend with but he becomes embroiled in her difficulties with Demis Papahadjopoulos. Their situation prevents them from spending much time together, so what time they do get is idyllic and blissful. They make...
