Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Black Cloud and Talking Wind soon learn that their son Wounded Coyote will do great things among their people. Wounded Coyote learns the ways of a Shaman from his father, but his vision quest and a series of tragic events sends him in a different direction. He marries Painted Flower and they have a son Running Bear who ends up having a Grizzly for a pet. Running Bear is set to follow his father s path as shaman of the Lakota. The tribe fears the white man will invade their lands causing the same types of problems as the Indians of the east. Will Jefferson was born with a crippled leg and has a hard time making friends, because they think he is a freak. He runs into the Smith brothers; Alvin, Hyrum, and Joseph who befriend him. Will s family ends up following the Smith family from Vermont to New York where Joseph has his first vision. Will believes everything that Joseph says he has seen, but his parents do not want him to see the Smith family again. Many of the people where Will lives hear of Indian attacks and start to fear them. Will gets different points of view about the Indians. After Will s father dies, Will meets Joseph again and is baptized a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He follows the church to Ohio, and then on to Missouri where he meets Wounded Coyote who asks for help from white men to come to his village to save his wife who is sick. Will goes back to the village with Wounded Coyote but they are too late to save Painted Flower. Will...
