Not illustrated. 1913 Excerpt: . the Hudson anything less than first in its field. There always has been in the Big Family a spirit of loyalty, fratemity, mutual good-feeling and friendliness. And it is a matter of congratulation to all of us that this spirit constantly is growing. Thus is created the feeling that one must be a good dealer, a good business man, give good service, make satisfied owners, --in order to feel at ease in the goodly company of Hudson representatives. There is no room in the Big Family for knockers, traitors, loafers, idlers. We want only men of reputation, standing, integrity, energy. We like the kind of man who makes such a strong impression on his prospects, owners, and other dealers that it is said of him: Where MacGregor sits, there is the head of the table. I drffit?
